ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 14, 1905.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

$1000 REWARD

Is offered as a guarantee that neither Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription nor

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains alcohol, opium, or any harmful drug. Any one publishing false statements concerning their ingredients will be prosecuted. Doctor Pierce's Family Remedies are compounds of medicinal principles, scientifically extracted from native roots that cure the diseases for which they are recommended. They are medicines which have enjoyed the public confidence for over a third of a century. They are medicines not beverages, made to satisfy a craving for "boozes."

"Golden Medical Discovery" regulates and invigorates stomach, liver and bowels, and cures dyspepsia, purifies the blood and tones up the system generally. "Favorite Prescription" cures female weakness, irregularities, exhausting drains, painful periods and kindred ailments peculiar to women. Accept no substitute for these medicines, each of which has a record of marvelous cures. Substitution means selfishness on the part of the dealer who is looking for the greater profit on an inferior article.

"Our daughter who was attending college became very nervous and was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. M. C. Fox of St. Leonard St., Grand Rapids, Mich. "We did so and then you advised us to get the 'Golden Medical Discovery' also. She took four bottles of the 'Prescription' and three of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and you never saw such a change in a person. She said she did not feel like the same person. She was about seventeen years old at the time. I will gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to every one. I advise parents who have young daughters who suffer from nervous troubles to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at once. I am sure it will help them."

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY. In copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $50,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps. The rest cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address: Dr. E. W. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpelde kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpelde is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpelde Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatic.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digest What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

Dollar bottle holds the time as much as the trial, or 50 cent size.

PAUL JONES'S BODY.

Gen. Horace Porter arrived at New York yesterday on the steamer Deutschland.

"The various developments in the identification of Paul Jones's body," Gen. Porter said, "formed a succession of extremely gratifying surprises. I was positive from the location that the body must be that of Paul Jones, but I was not prepared for the remarkable accuracy with which our discoverers comported with the historical records of his sickness and death."

"Most wonderful of all was the autopsy, performed by Surgeon General Dr. Capitan, with the assistance of other anthropologists. It disclosed a fibrous tissue where the left lung had been affected, confirming our knowledge that Jones suffered from bronchial pneumonia. The viscera were in perfect preservation, and there were shown all the symptoms of dropsy, a disease that we know he had, and, most strikingly of all, the symptoms of nephritis, the disease from which he died. That these symptoms should be so marked, or, indeed, marked at all, in a body from which life had passed 113 years before, was nothing short of amazing."

"I was also amazed when opening the casket and removing the linen windig sheet," which, by the way, was in excellent preservation, to observe how closely the countenance comported with the bust by Houdin, which the anthropologists had to guide them. The face was a bit shrunken over the cheek bones, but in no spot did the measurements of the body differ from those of the mask by over two millimeters. The resemblance was perfect, even to the disfigured lobe of the left ear. The teeth, were as we know them to have been in the admiral's later days, and the hair was brown, tinged with gray."

"A remembrance of Paul Jones's career as a dandy was given in the fancy shirt, with its ruffles and pleats. It bore the mark 'J.' There was tinfoil around his hands and face and bay around the body; evidently placed there to prevent the body from being disturbed in its casket on the voyage to this country, which the embalmers probably expected it would take."

"There were five caskets, all of them of lead, in the place we found the body. Four of them had name plates. This one had none. It was a mummy-shaped casket, round over the place for the head, and displayed fine ornamental lead work."

Deaths and Suicides From Heat.

Overcome by heat and humidity yesterday afternoon two men plunged to their death in New York. John McCerron, aged 35, fell down a flight of stairs from the second to the first floor at his home and broke his neck. Samuel Schultz, aged 42, was overcome while at work on the roof of the building at 280 Brooke avenue and fell to the ground. His skull was fractured and he died instantly. In all 13 persons were killed by the sun's rays yesterday and 16 were prostrated. One man became a raving maniac. A shower at noon caused a drop of 8 degrees—from 85 to 77—and afforded some relief. The harvest of death during this spell has already been appalling. David Schessler, a tailor, violently insane from the heat yesterday afternoon, and caused a panic in the big tenement where he lived before he was subdued and taken in a straight-jacket to Bellevue Hospital. Schessler had been ill for sometime with influenza, and the hot weather greatly added to his sufferings.

The terrific heat of the past week has precipitated an epidemic of suicides in Utica, N. Y., and vicinity and is also accountable for a heavy mortality among the aged and the invalids. On Wednesday night August Hunt, a civil war veteran, driven insane by the heat, swallowed carbolic acid and his life is despaired of. Tracy Cheezb, of Bridge-water, a prosperous farmer, hanged himself with a horse net, and Henry Toft, a farmer living near Lowell, cut his throat with a razor. The death list among persons past 70 years and among invalids has been greater in Utica and vicinity during the past 10 days than in any similar period in several years. The physicians ascribe it to the overpowering humidity and high temperature. The mercury has stood between 90 and 95 for the past week, with the humidity ranging around 81.

Murder Mystery.

The body of a woman was found yesterday afternoon near the links of the Arlington Golf Club, near Belmont, Mass. Her throat had been cut, a deep, jagged wound having almost severed the head from the trunk. The identity of the woman has not been learned. The body was found behind a stone wall, and from the general appearance of the ground in the vicinity it was judged that the body had been dragged there some time Wednesday night. The victim was about thirty years of age. The deed was committed on uncultivated land, within seventy-five feet of the stone wall beside which the body was found and marks along the ground and among the shrubbery, indicated that some heavy object had been dragged for several feet. There were further marks, as if a struggle had occurred. The murderer evident-

Mrs. Willadsen Tells How She Tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Just in Time.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words."

"Before I wrote to you, telling you how I felt, I had doctored for over two years and spent lots of money on medicines besides, but it all failed to help me. My monthly periods had ceased and I suffered much pain, with fainting spells, headache, backache and bearing-down pains, and I was so weak I could hardly keep around. As a last resort I decided to write you and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful that I did, for after following your instructions, which you sent me free of all charge, my monthly periods started: I am regular and in perfect health. Had I not been for you I would be in my grave to-day."

"I sincerely trust that this letter may lead every suffering woman in the country to write you for help as I did."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulency, general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse all substitutes.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

ly had attempted to get the body of the woman over a barbed-wire fence which skirts a small pond used by several householders as a source of their water supply. Failing to get it over the fence, the murderer left it in a gully alongside of the stone wall. The officers in their examination of the ground found numerous blood marks. In addition to the hat, a pair of cuffs belonging to a man's hat striped shirt was picked up near the pond. There were blood stains on the cuffs. A woman's pocketbook and a whisky bottle the latter nearly empty, were found. In the pocketbook was a slip of paper on which were written two names, a man's and a woman's, but the officers refuse to tell what they are.

Sickening Shivering Fits

of Ague and Malaria, can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to Quinine, having no poisonous after-effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons drug store; price 50c, guaranteed."

The pills that act as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley, N. D., says: "Two bottles of these Famous Little Pills cured me of chronic constipation." Good for either children or adults. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner of Queen and Patrick streets.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. This careful the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by Gibson & Timmerman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
